Holiday Homework

Class IX

English

1. The students will write an article highlighting the importance of protecting and restoring the planet thereby creating awareness amongst the people. The protection of the natural environment is an important and unselfish action in the interest of all living beings. The ability to breathe clean air, to have a supply of wholesome drinking water and to be protected against the harmful effects of things like waste and noise are fundamental to our well-being. You are deeply anguished to see the depletion of natural resources leading to environmental degradation. Population explosion, deforestation, increase in transportation, eversion of fumes and poisonous gases from the industries as well as vehicles, throwing of waste into the rivers and lakes etc have become a common sight these days.

Write an article on this topic with the theme given : 'Without earth no one will take birth'.

Word Limit: 500 Max

You can select headline/title of your choice

Send at : newkoustav@gmail.com

Don't forget to mention your name, class and roll number.

(The composition must be a handwritten one. Students are instructed to make PDFs and send the attachments)

2. Compose a story (in about 300 words) prioritising the need of greenery in our life. The composition is to be made in A4 pages and to be attached with a stick file. Give a suitable title of the story and use pictures for attraction.
